MARRIAGE AND CIVIL PARTNERSHIP CEREMONIES AT MORLEY HAYES

Morley Hayes has a licence to hold marriage and civil partnership ceremonies in all three of our function suites. To ensure your ceremony is special our Master of Ceremonies will welcome you with a red carpet reception.

Before the ceremony the registrar will request a brief interview with you both. Couples who do not wish to arrive together can be kept separate until the ceremony commences.

Our beautifully crafted oak table and high backed chairs makes the perfect setting to make your wedding vows. Every effort is taken to ensure that your ceremony is memorable and therefore no drinks or refreshments are permitted one hour prior and during the marriage service.

We will consult with you both prior to the day as to your choice of music for the entrance, the signing of the register and departing down the aisle. We have an excellent selection of music or you are welcome to bring your own. Live music can also be arranged.

As our function rooms comprise of different sections we are able to carry out the ceremony and wedding breakfast in the same room. For larger weddings the use of two rooms would be necessary.

As for all ceremonies at Morley Hayes you will have the use of our superb picturesque gardens. We have three areas all beautifully landscaped, providing the perfect setting for your photographs.

Following the ceremony, reception drinks and canapés can be served to all guests in the grounds, subject to weather conditions or alternatively your guests will be served in the lounge areas of the function suite.

Prior to booking, a coordinator will advise you on the timings of the wedding ceremony.

If you require any further assistance with planning your special ceremony, please don't hesitate to contact our coordinators. We will be delighted to welcome you to view our extensive facilities.

Set within our beautifully landscaped and tranquil secret garden our elegant wedding dome is licensed for civil and partnership ceremonies, making it a truly romantic and memorable setting to exchange vows in front of your family and friends.

Surrounded by beautiful flowering shrubs and the picturesque Derbyshire countryside, chairs are placed on the lawn beside a centre aisle leading to the classical stone columned dome, where the marriage will take place.

If your dream wedding is full of forest ferns, rustic romance and magical memories, you need look no further. Your ceremony will take place, nestled amongst wild flowers, such as Solomon's seal and Lily of the Valley, shrouded beneath spectacular towering pines, horse chestnut and beech trees, with an expanse of breathtaking views beyond.

Our wedding lodge will be a private and secluded open structure, offering an enchanting setting for your special day; guests can join the intimate ceremony, seated on oak benches, beside the old-fashioned lych-gate, overlooking Morley Hayes woods. An idyllic location for wedding photographs too.

The PA system installed within both outdoor areas provides the opportunity to have music played before and during the ceremony. It will also ensure all guests hear every precious word of the ceremony. We promise you all the assistance and advice required to arrange your special day.

In the event of severe weather conditions an alternative indoor ceremony room will be made available for your service. The maximum number of guests attending the wedding dome ceremony must not exceed the maximum number of guests permitted in the alternative indoor ceremony room.

If the decision is made on the day to move the ceremony into the indoor room then the additional charge of either £150.00 or £195.00 will be refunded after the wedding day.

The wedding dome is available Sunday to Friday, and on Saturday only for wedding parties of 70 to 90 people. (This is subject to the availability of this wedding garden)

WINE LIST

A minimum of one glass per person to be offered.

An alternative to putting bottles of wine on the tables is to tell us how many glasses you wish your guests to have. You will then be charged for the total estimated number of bottles we think you will use on the day. On the day we will keep count of the bottles. We will then reimburse you after the event if we have over-estimated or we will send an invoice if we have under estimated.

As a general rule normally we estimate four glasses of wine per bottle and five glasses of sparkling wine/champagne per bottle. Guests who choose not to have a glass of wine with their meal will be offered a soft drink as an alternative.

WEDDING ETIQUETTE

When it comes to planning your reception, here are some examples of traditional wedding etiquette to give you some guidance.

WEDDING CEREMONY

Bride's guests are seated on the left hand side of the ceremony room whilst the Bridegroom's guests are seated on the right hand side of the ceremony room.

The main duty of an usher is to show people to their seats and distribute orders of service. It is tradition for the Bride and Bridegrooms parents, Bridesmaids and best man to be seated at the front of the ceremony room.

The bride walks down the aisle on the right hand side of whoever is giving her away and will stand on the left hand side of the bridegroom during the ceremony.

THE RECEIVING LINE

A receiving line is the ideal way to greet your guests prior to the wedding breakfast. The full receiving line is composed as follows:

Bride's Mother, Bride's Father, Bride and Bridegroom, Bridegroom's Mother, Bridegroom's Father, Bridesmaid, Best Man

THE WEDDING BREAKFAST

When all the guests have passed through the receiving line and made their way to their appropriate tables, the master of ceremonies will request everybody to stand to receive the Bride and Bridegroom.

The master of ceremonies will then lead the Bride and Bridegroom to their places at the top table. If required, they will say grace or introduce a guest to do so.

THE CUTTING OF THE WEDDING CAKE

Once the pudding has been cleared the master of ceremonies will make an announcement that the Bride and Bridegroom wish to cut their wedding cake and invite any photographers to come forward. The wedding cake can then be served with the coffee prior to the speeches.

TOASTS AND SPEECHES

Our master of ceremonies will be on hand to assist in the announcing of your speeches.

Traditionally the bride's father will begin by saying a few words about the Bride, welcomes the Bridegroom into the family and proposes a toast to the bride and bridegroom.

The bridegroom then replies by thanking the bride's parents. The groom may wish to present his and the bride's mother with bouquets. He will thank all guests for attending and for all the gifts and cards they have received. The groom will also thank all those involved in the organising of the wedding and may present them with gifts. The groom then speaks about his new wife and will finish by proposing a toast to the bridesmaids.

The best man replies on behalf of the bridesmaids and reads any messages. The best man then delivers his speech where he talks about the groom, often including some amusing reflections and memories of the past.

TOP TABLE PLAN

Below is a suggested table plan, this can be altered to suit your personal requirements:

Best Man, Chief Bridesmaid, Bridegroom's Father, Bride's Mother, Bridegroom, Bride, Bride's Father, Bridegroom's Mother, Bridesmaid
